STEALS SIX CAKES AND GUM AT PISTOL POINT

Two boxes of chewing gum and six cakes, the product of a well known bakery, comprised the loot of a colored hold-up man, who robbed Nachem Walk, in his store at 2301 Sherman avenue northwest, last night at the point of a revolver.

The gum and pastry seemed to be the only articles the man wanted. He walked into the store, looked around, saw the evident object of his quest, and "ordered" them.

Walk saw the man taste the cakes, place five of them in his pocket, and stow away the two boxes of gum. The robber left as quietly as he had entered.

He was described to the police as being 35, five feet eight, and with a small mustache.

MANN ANSWERS HUGHES' CRITICS

Engages in Warm Debate with Representative Borland Over
Republican Nominee.

Republican Leader Mann and Representative Borland, of Missouri, a Democrat, engaged in a political discussion in the House yesterday. Mr. Mann assailed the critics of Charles E. Hughes and Mr. Borland attacked the Republican platform adopted at Chicago.

"Great assaults have been made upon the Republican party and its candidate for President because when he was nominated he was an assistant justice of the Supreme Court of the United States," said Representative Mann. "I am glad to see that the President, apparently exercising a greater degree of wisdom than many of his followers, has decided that this shall not be an issue in the campaign."

"In 1904 there was a gentleman actively himself a candidate openly and avowedly a candidate for nomination by the Democratic convention. He was then the chief judge of the Court of Appeals of New York, the highest judicial position in the State, and I dare say, outside of the United States the most judicial position in the country. He was nominated on July 9, 1904. It may be said in passing that another judge, Gray, of Delaware, was voted for in the Democratic convention at the time Alton B. Parker was nominated for President."

Representative Borland, attacking the Chicago platform, said:
"It is evident that the Republican national convention at Chicago was not in an 'heroic mood.' If it had been it would not have nominated as its candidate the cold storage twins, Hughes and Fairbanks. It was not in 'heroic mood' either when it adopted the platform of the Republican party for the campaign of 1916."

Of course, we know that it was scared into that platform by the ominous figure of the 'Rough Rider.' The Republican platform is peculiar in its silence and it is remarkable for the things that it does not say."
